BOBBY BONES FUNNY & ALONE COMEDY TOUR COMING TO THE SANDLER CENTER JANUARY 14

Tickets go on sale December 2 at 10 a.m.

Bobby Bones, dubbed by New York Times as “the biggest thing in country radio” takes his compelling story out on the road with his one-man comedy show. Bones with special guests Walker Hayes and Nikita Karmen will hit the Sandler Center stage Friday, January 13 at 8:00pm. Tickets go on sale Friday, December 2 at 10am and are available at the Sandler Center Box Office, over the phone at 877-YNOTTIX, or online at YNOTTIX.COM

The host of iHeartMedia’s The Bobby Bones Show, reaching millions of listeners on nearly 100 stations, Bones’ stand-up show combines his love for country music and comedy in his distinct humorous patter, while regaling stories from growing up in rural Arkansas, to hosting the biggest show in country radio.

Proving to be an instant hit amongst audiences, the show continues to sell out venues across the country, with some selling out in just minutes. Bobby Bones’ BARES BONES: I’M NOT LONELY IF YOU’RE READING THIS BOOK (Dey Street Books) spent four weeks on New York Times Bestsellers List earlier this year, following an overwhelming debut that saw the memoir claim the No. One spot on multiple lists including USA Today and Wall Street Journal. Having broken some of country music’s freshest talent, while forging uncharted territory in his own career, Bones was recently honored by ASCAP with the “Partners In Music” Award, given to those who have shown exceptional dedication in presenting ASCAP members’ music to the public.

Tickets go on sale December 2 at 10 a.m.
