DETAILS: Symphonicity, The Symphony Orchestra of Virginia Beach is holding string auditions for its 2009-2010 season of performances at the Sandler Center in Virginia Beach. The season begins on September 8, 2009, and continues through April, 2010. Applicants should contact Wendy Young at 757-671-8611, or at wendy.young@symphonicity.org.

Symphonicity, the Symphony Orchestra of Virginia Beach, provides a challenging performance experience for area musicians and fills a need for low cost, quality concerts in the community. The orchestra has over 100 members, who give freely of their time and talents. Membership is composed of retired and active symphony players, public school teachers, instructors at and graduates of the Armed Forces School of Music, freelance musicians, private instructors and composers, as well as business professionals, homemakers, and select high school students. Symphonicity, formerly known as the Virginia Beach Symphony Orchestra, was formed in 1981, under the baton of its current Music Director and Conductor, David S. Kunkel. Symphonicity is a resident company at the new Sandler Center for the Performing Arts in the Town Center of Virginia Beach. For more information, visit www.symphonicity.org
